GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO RESET
SENTENCING HEARING

The United States, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, files this Motion to Reset Sentencing Hearing and states:

1. On November 24, 2000 this Court filed a Notice That A Proceeding in this Case Has Been Reset As Follows: Sentencing was changed from December 8, 2000 at 1:30 pm to December 15, 2000 at 1:30 pm.
2. On December 15, 2000, undersigned counsel has to be in court in Clearwater, Florida for personal reasons, an adoption finalization hearing.

3. Undersigned counsel has inquired of David Bogenshutz, counsel for the defendant whether he objects to this motion to reset the sentencing hearing and he has no objection. Mr. Bogenshutz and undersigned counsel are available the following Friday, December 22, 2000.

4. The defendant Thompson is one of 7 defendants arrested as part of a larger ecstasy investigation. Although another AUSA could attend the sentencing hearing, it would be preferable for undersigned counsel to handle the matter.

WHEREFORE, the United States, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, respectfully asks the Court to reset the sentencing hearing to a date other than December 15, 2000 and also respectfully requests that if possible, the hearing be set on December 22, 2000.

Respectfully submitted,

GUY S. LEWIS
